Graduation 2021

By Lydia Dokken
Staff Reporter

The class of 2021 graduated on Sunday, May 16, 2021 in the high school gymnasium. The graduating class this year contained 14 graduates.

The ceremony began at 2:00 p.m., beginning with the processional. The 7-12 band played "Pomp and Circumstance" under the direction of Mr. Bradley Sheeley as the graduates approached the stage.

Mrs. Lisa Craig, high school principal, welcomed everyone and gave opening remarks. The salutatorian address was given by Mallory Wood, followed by the class history, read aloud by Anna

Phipps and Andaya Brown. Mrs. Craig then announced the scholarships and awards achieved by each member of the graduating class. The valedictorian's address was then given by Andaya Brown. Mrs. Terri Johnson delivered a message about individuality on the road to success and gave the students mini motivational posters. Board president Mr. Brent Jennings presented diplomas to the proud graduates. Concluding the ceremony, graduates switched their tassels and threw their caps into the air before the ceremony ended with the recessional.

Spring Concert Debuts New Fire Choir and Sends Off Seniors

By Lydia Dokken
Staff Reporter

This year's spring concert took place on May 5th. It began with the Elementary "Fire Choir" (grades 4-6) singing "Rockin' Robin" and "A Million Dreams". 5th-8th grade bands performed the songs "The Silver Rocket" and "Panther Rising". The 7-12 choir sang 5 different songs, which included a beautiful solo by Anna Phipps, "When Love is Kind". The 7-12 band performed 4 different songs, but the most well-received performance among the crowd seemed to be "The Cave You Fear".

This was the last concert for the seniors of Stanberry's band and choir, who were relieved to be able to have a spring concert (as it was cancelled alongside many other activities at the end of last year). Awards were given to students during the concert. Anna Phipps received the Arion Award as well as the Director's Award, and Stephen Henggeler received the John Philip Sousa Award. The seniors were all congratulated on their accomplishments and given flowers alongside their parents.

Senior choir and band members were honored with their parents at the concert. Seniors included Stephen Henggeler, Anna Phipps, and Iris Taylor.

"I'm proud of all the musicians who participated in our concert and grateful for all those who came to watch," stated director Mr. Bradley

Sheeley, "I'm sad to see our seniors go, but I'm excited for them to explore new opportunities. I'm looking forward to next year!"

FCCLA, FBLA, and FFA Hold Vocational Banquet

By Collin Sager
Staff Reporter

The 2021 vocational banquet was held on April 22 in the multipurpose room. The vocational banquet consisted of FFA, FBLA, and FCCLA organizations. The night started off with the FFA opening ceremony, a prayer by FFA Chaplain Riley McQueen, and a delicious meal of lasagna and dishes brought in by those attending.

FCCLA installed new officers for the 2021-22 school year including President Kolton Dias, Vice-President Sadie Runde, Secretary Marli Hilton, Treasurer Colby McQuinn, and Historian Rhona Henggeler. They handed out awards for their accomplishments, which recognized STAR Events participants Kenzi Santa Cruz, Ally Santa Cruz, and Hannah McQuinn.

Up next was FBLA. They began with opening remarks from President Riley McQueen, followed by recognizing all members for their efforts at district and state contests. They concluded their portion by installing 2021-22 officers: President Tyler Schwebach, Vice-President Lexi Craig, Secretary Austin Schwebach, Treasurer Caroline Fanning, and Reporter Emma Phipps.

FFA concluded the evening by also handing out awards and honoring members. Some awards were hand selected by Mrs. Noble, and others were voted on by the chapter members. Bronco and Emmy Brown were selected as Honorary Members for their support and dedication to the chapter. Finally, next year's officers were installed: President Benjamin Messner, 1st VP Lexi Craig, 2nd VP Katelyn Stoll, Secretary Astasia Brown, Treasurer Sadie Runde, Reporter Kiley Mattson, Sentinel Colby McQuinn, and Chaplain Korbin Fletchall. The night was an overall success with many receiving awards and in attendance.

National Honor Society Inducts New Members

By Evan Saxton
Staff Reporter

On April 26th, National Honor Society inducted seven new sophomore members: Katie Angle, Caroline Fanning, Rhona Henggeler, Kiley Mattson, Emma Phipps, Katelyn Stoll, and Marissa Webster.

Mallory Wood commented on the ceremony saying, "Induction was held on a beautiful evening and I hope the new members uphold the organization in a respectful manner."

After the ceremony members took group pictures with family and friends, enjoyed cookies and punch, and celebrated getting into NHS. Mrs. Sheryl Waker expressed her joy by saying "I am always proud to see the new NHS members inducted and the veteran members recognized. This is a fantastic group to work with, and I hope they continue the qualities of character, leadership, and service throughout their lives."

The purpose of National Honor Society is to elevate a school's commitment to the values of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. These four pillars have been associated with membership in the organization since its inception in 1921.

Senior Tea

By Collin Sager
Staff Reporter

The annual Senior Tea was held on Thursday, May 6th at the home of Susan Eckard and hosted by the sorority members of Beta Sigma Phi. Those in attendance were Andaya Brown, Amy Hoover, Riley McQueen, Anna Phipps, Iris Taylor, Morgan Wallace and Mallory Wood. The girls were escorted in by Collin Sager.

Upon entering the house, the girls were taken into the courtyard for pictures. After pictures, they all gathered in the living room for introductions, to discuss their future plans, and where they were going to school. Attendants also had the privilege of watching the Senior Tea video from 21 years ago, the class of 2000, where two of the girl's mothers, Emmy (Simmerman) Brown and Amanda (Graf) Phipps, along with their math teacher, Mr. Jason Dias, had been in attendance. At the conclusion of the video the girls were served an array of hors d'oeuvre and punch.

The final event of the night was the presentation of each girl. They were led down the stairs by Collin and presented to all those in attendance. Anna Phipps said about the evening, "it was very fun and I enjoyed seeing my mom in the video." Everyone in attendance had a very enjoyable evening.

KC Wolf visits Stanberry and King City Schools promoting the Gentry County Summer Reading Program.

KC Wolf Kicks off Summer Reading

By Evan Saxton
Staff Reporter

On Monday, May 10 the Gentry County Library kicked off their summer reading program with none other than KC Wolf! The assembly started with the librarians talking about the importance of reading and the fun events students could participate in during the summer. KC Wolf and the Gentry County Library visited both King City and Stanberry Schools to help spread the word on the summer program.

One of the most enjoyable parts was watching KC Wolf hype up all the little kids in the crowd. KC Wolf, portrayed by Dan Meers, then took off his costume and told the crowd what it was like to be a mascot for the Kansas City Chiefs. He then acted out the Big Bad Wolf to all the kids but with a twist! The whole thing was all a giant misunderstanding and he just wanted some sugar to bake a cake, which all the little kids thought was hilarious. Mr. Meers then finished the assembly by answering some questions from the crowd, which were nothing short of interesting.

7-12 Hold Awareness Day

By Kiley Mattson
Guest Reporter

On Friday May 14, the school hosted an Awareness Day for the students and faculty. May is Mental Health Awareness month and students got the choice to participate in various workshops during the school day.

The workshop choices included pet care, cooking 101, square dancing, self-defense, stress management first aid, car maintenance, yoga and card games. Many valuable skills were learned in these workshops which students need to be successful on their own.

They learned how to cook for one, how to change a tire, how to best defend themselves from predators, and CPR. The other choices were activity hours in which students enjoyed dancing and playing games.

Sophomore Emma Phipps said "Self-defense was a very good learning experience." Junior Sadie Runde, when asked for her opinion of Awareness Day, stated, "It prepares you for the real world outside of high school."

2021 Class of 21 Senior Trip

By Lexi Craig
Guest Reporter

Senior trip was held last week and was one of the final events for 2021 graduates. The seniors that attended included Andaya Brown, Stephen Henggeler, Amy Hoover, Jamie Jamieson, Riley McQueen, Anna Phipps, Collin Sager, Evan Saxton, Iris Taylor, Morgan Wallace, Mallory Wood, and Will Wood. Sponsors included Mrs. Michele Kelley and Mrs. Kirsten Maronde.

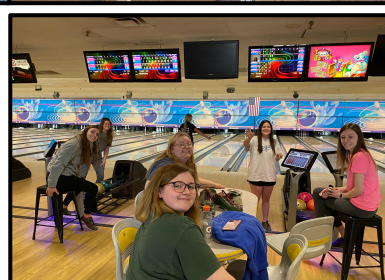

They left on Wednesday, May 12, in the afternoon. The seniors first went to Belt Entertainment (Belt Bowl) in St. Joseph, where they played laser tag, video-games, and bowled for a couple of hours. After Belt Bowl, they ate supper at Texas Roadhouse and then started their drive back to East Fork Lodge and Ranch in Albany. East Fork Lodge and Ranch is on Highway N, a few miles west of Albany. East Fork includes a theater room to watch movies, an indoor swimming pool, a pool table, a fire pit, and a large pond to go fishing, canoeing, kayaking, and paddleboarding. The students got the entire lodge to themselves while staying there.

On Thursday, May 13, they drove to Kansas City to do axe throwing as well as ziplining. Many students were able to throw bullseyes, and some even tried the spears to throw. While ziplining, they could reach speeds of fifty miles per hour and ziplined nine different zip lines stretching over 5,800 feet. After their fun day in Kansas City, they loaded up and headed back to East Fork Lodge. Poppa's Family Restaurant in Albany catered their supper that night. They came back home on Wednesday, May 14, early in the morning.

The seniors all had a great time spending their last few days together before they all head to college to or enter the next phase of their future.

Video Game Review: Star Wars Battlefront II

By Evan Saxton
Staff Reporter

If you have ever dreamed of having the ability to use "the force" or fighting someone with a lightsaber, this is the game for you. While we may never be able to do either of these in real life, Star Wars Battlefront II allows you to simulate the experience. This game truly captivates the feeling of Star Wars, whether you are a Jedi running around with a lightsaber or just a regular soldier shooting at Stormtroopers or Rebels.

Each Star Wars movie comes to life in this game, with each level being a different time period and location. A player can choose which character they wish to portray, making the experience even more enjoyable. A large perk of this game is the constant support from the developers. Whenever a new Star Wars movie or show premieres, they are quick to add it to the game. This allows you to play the newest locations or new heroes or villains in real time.

This is a very enjoyable game that is constantly changing and updating, making it new and exciting each time you get on to play.

Book Review

By Lydia Dokken
Staff Reporter

This month I read Tricks by Ellen Hopkins. In this 640-page novel in verse, we explore the lives of five teenagers and the harshness of the worlds in which they live. Each of the characters learn, the hard way, the cruel truths of life as they fall into harmful patterns at a much too young age. Eden is sent to a religious rehab camp by her parents and is forced to escape to the streets of Vegas. Seth is kicked out of his lifelong home for the way he was born. Whitney falls for the charms of a photographer with less-than-pure intentions for her future. Ginger runs away from her home and neglectful mother, only to discover life on her own is just as bad, if not worse. Cody falls into a gambling addiction which causes him to lose his job and the trust of everyone he once loved - and this is only the beginning of their stories.

Although I've loved all of the Ellen Hopkins books I have read, this one may be my favorite by far. One very

by Ellen Hopkins

recognizable aspect of her books is that every chapter begins with a poem from the perspective of a different character. The poems in this book are emotional and provide a seamless transition from chapter to chapter, while also giving insight to the characters' thoughts and feelings. Each of their stories had me on the edge of my seat, hoping they would make the right decision but feeling for them even when they didn't. Because of the complexity and depth of the characters and their stories, as well as a flawless delivery in poetic form, I would rate this book a perfect 10/10.

What are your summer plans?

First grader Donnie Steinhauser is planning to "go on vacation to Utah!"

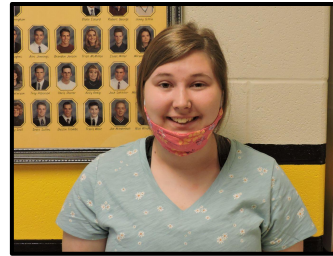

Kindergartener Brookelyn McMillen said her plans include "going to the beach!"

Seventh grader Hayden Swan said "playing my Xbox".

Seventh grader Miley Davis says her plans include, "sleeping."

"Swimming," is what juniors Matti Davis is most excited for this summer.

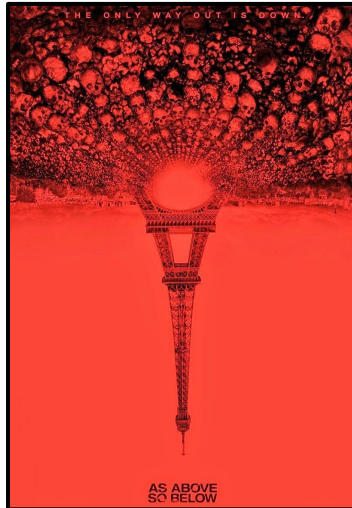

Freshman Dillon Johnson said, "riding dirtbikes."

As Above, So Below is a supernatural horror movie that came out in 2014. My usual complaint about horror movies would be they rely too heavily on gore and "jumpscare" in order to scare the viewers - although this movie does incorporate those, it doesn't overuse it as badly as other horror movies do, and there are plenty of other factors that make for a pretty scary experience overall.

The setting of the movie is in dark, underground catacombs, where the group faces very real risks such as getting lost or running out of supplies (flashlight batteries, food, or water).

Combined with the horrors that lurk in the dark catacombs, the movie creates a good balance between real risk and the paranormal. The maze-like depths are impossible to navigate even with a map, and even when the group thinks they know where they're headed, they soon find there is a twist ahead. The supernatural creatures are presented in a way that is chilling and suspenseful, and the sounds have an equally unsettling effect, giving a whole new meaning to goosebumps.

I would recommend this movie if you are someone who likes to actually feel scared by a horror movie, rather than just mildly perturbed.

HS Track Has Successful Postseason

By Evan Saxton
Staff Reporter

The 2021 track season has been a good one with multiple records being broken and the overall team pushing each other to do better at each meet. Stephen Henggeler says, "Despite having an ankle injury during districts, I still felt pretty confident while running in my event."

The track team has done outstanding during districts and moved on to sectionals. Boys district finalists include Austin Colvin [Shot, Discus, Javelin], Gavin Cameron [4x100, 4x200], Lance Wallace [4x100, 4x200, 4x400], Benjamin Messner [4x200], Evan Saxton [4x100], Tyler Schwebach [800, 4x200, 4x400, 4x800], Austin Schwebach [4x400, 4x800], Colby McQuinn [4x400, 4x800], Peyton Hume [Pole Vault], and Brayden Hahn [4x800]. Girls district winners include Lexi Craig [high jump, javelin, 4x400], Sadie Runde [400, 4x200, 4x400], Katie Angle [4x200, 4x400], Amelia Wallace [4x200, 4x400], Katlyn James [Pole Vault, Long Jump, 4x200]. Coach Hilton commented, "Districts went very well for us and we advanced in the events that we hoped for."

In sectional action on Saturday, May 15th, Stanberry once again walked away successfully with many qualifying for state competition in Jefferson City, Saturday, May 22nd. The following tracksters all qualified and will compete next Saturday: Austin Colvin-1st in both discus and shot, Tyler Schwebach- 1st in the 800 meter, Peyton Hume-4th place in pole vault, and the 4x800 team, consisting of Colby McQuinn, Brayden Hahn, Austin Schwebach, and Tyler Schwebach, placed 3rd. On the girls side Lexi Craig placed 1st in javelin, Katlyn James placed 2nd in pole vault and 2nd in long jump, and the 4x200 team, consisting of Sadie Runde, Katie Angle, Amelia Wallace, and Katlyn James came in 4th. Best of luck on Saturday to all members of the track team competing at Jefferson City!

Intermediate Students Hold Track and Field Day

By Marissa Webster
Guest Reporter

There was a long wait of anticipation for the students in 4th, 5th, and 6th grade for the annual track and field day. This would be the first experience for both the 4th and 5th graders, and only the second appearance for the 6th grade since COVID cancelled the event last year. As track and field day came and went, there were a lot of records broken and set and fun had by all.

Fourth grader Drevyn Spence broke Parker Ginther's 4th-grade softball toss record of 95' by 5". Pax Schieber broke John Shank's long jump record of 11'9.5" by 11.5". Katelyn Shisler, Addison Graham, Emily Santa Cruz, and Harper Heyde are the girls from the 4x100m relay who made a new record of 1:09.95. Quinn Jensen, Kaleb Evans, Drake Ginther, and Pax Schieber are the boys who set a new record for the 4x200m relay.

Fifth grader Kynzee Adcock broke Taryn Hunter's 200m dash past record of 33.34 by 1.42 seconds! She also broke Allison Luke's 100m dash record of 15.45 by 0.04 seconds! Ellie Dias broke Amelia Wallace's long jump record of 11'4" by 10". Lane McGinley, Luke Phipps, Thor Cameron, and Blake Mercer set a new 5th-grade record in the 4x200m finishing at 3:02.51. Kynzee Adcock, Allie Schieber, Ellie Dias, and Olivia McQuinn set a new 5th-grade record in the 4x100m relay finishing at 1:02.89, 3.07 seconds faster than Marli Hilton, Trista Lager, Maranda Evans, and Brea Jensen's old record. Ellie and Olivia said the track and field day was fun, but very tiring.

Sixth grader Parker Ginther broke Nate Giffin's softball toss record of 113'10" by 7'3". During the track and field day Parker said, "We had a great time, it was a lot of fun." Konnor Keough, Wesley Bashor, Dalton Taylor, and Zander Heyde set a new 6th-grade boy record in the 4x200m relay finishing at 2:55.56.

The intermediate students look forward to next year as the 6th graders venture into junior high and the 4th and 5th graders look to break more records in the future.

JH Track Concludes Season

By Collin Sager
Staff Reporter

The junior high track team just finished up their season with their final GRC meet on May 6th. They had 7 track meets this year starting with one track meet the last week of March. They had a really great season while working hard but also having tons of fun.

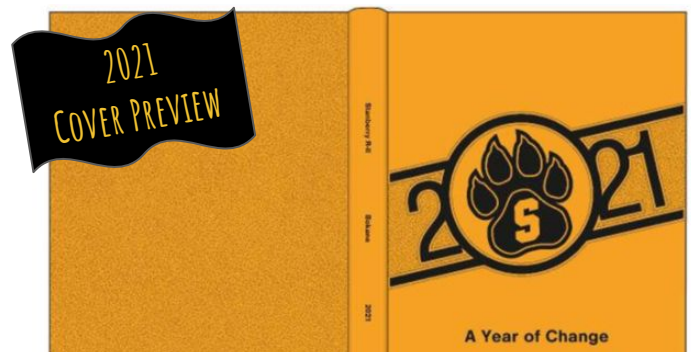

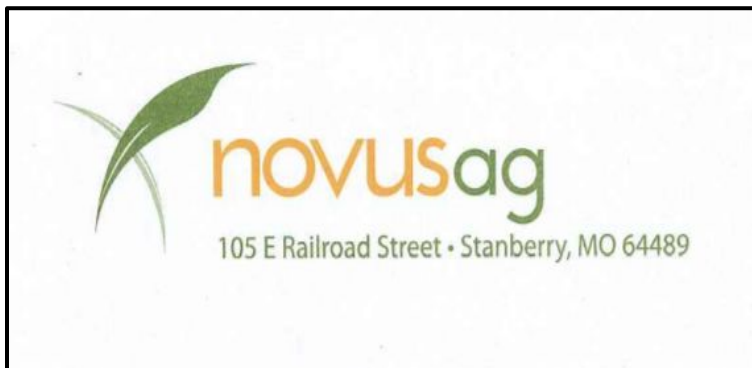

The junior high track team was coached by Mrs. Kirsten Maronde and Mrs. Kaleigh Meyer. At the GRC meet at Worth County, the girls placed 3rd as a team. Individually, Marli Hilton received 1st in the 400 meter race and 4th in the 800. The 4x100, consisting of Hannah McQuinn, Jencie James, Kenzi Santa Cruz, and Dani Van Draska placed 6th overall. This group of girls also ran the 4x200 relay placing 6th in that event as well. For field events Maranda Evans placed 6th, in the long jump. Kenzi Santa Cruz placed 5th and Hannah McQuinn placed 6th in long jump. Brea Jensen placed 1st in the shot put, breaking the school record! Brea also placed 1st in discus. The junior high girls had a great end to their season.

The boys placed 6th overall at the GRC meet. Individually, Decker Heyde placed 3rd in the 200 meter, and 4th in the 1600 meter. Jordyn Wright got 4th in the 800 meter, while Jaren Stoll received 6th in the same event. Vincent Smithson got 6th in the 100 meter hurdles. In field events Jonathan Clark placed 1st in the shot put and 2nd in discus. To round out the events, the 4x400 relay team, consisting of Decker Heyde, Jordyn Wright, Colby McQueen, and Brayden Dias finished well too. Great job to both the boys' and girls' junior high track team on a successful season.

Six Word Memoirs to Reflect on the 2020-2021 School Year

Mrs. Michele Kelley's English classes spent some time the last few days of school reflecting on the school year and what it meant to them. They could only use six words in their reflection. Here is a taste of what some of the students felt at the conclusion of this not-so-normal school year.

Thank you all teachers, staff, and community for your support and contributions to the Bulldog's Bark throughout the school year! This publication wouldn't have been possible without each and every one of you!
